

defendant. Fed. R. Civ. Pro. §§4(e) and (f); Omni Capital International, supra; Meaamaile, supra.

That Hawaii's long-arm statute "requires that the cause of action relate to the defendant's contacts in Hawaii" is not open to doubt. So held the Ninth Circuit in Commercial Insurance Company of Newark v. Pacific-Peru Construction Corp., 558 F.2d 948, 955 (1977) (affirming the District Court's dismissal of a third party complaint for lack of personal jurisdiction, where the third party plaintiff "made no showing before the District Court as to how these causes of action relate to [the third party defendant's] contacts with Hawaii. The District Court properly found that [the third party plaintiff], as proponent of jurisdiction, could not satisfy its burden of proving that the Court had personal jurisdiction over [the third party defendant] under Hawaii's long-arm statute," where the third party defendant had sent attorneys to Hawaii to collect security under an indemnity agreement and had also sent letters to attempt the collection of monies due under the agreement.). Accord, Cowan v. First Insurance Company of Hawaii, Ltd., 61 Haw. 644, 652, 609 P.2d 994, 400, n.7 (1980) ("Where one alleges jurisdiction over a non-resident defendant pursuant to Hawaii's long-arm statute, HRS §634-35(c) requires that the cause of action relate to the defendant's contacts in Hawaii.").

Beyond the statutory lack of personal jurisdiction here, there is a constitutional bar as well. The federal requirements of constitutional due process require a higher threshold of activity in Hawaii by defendant in order to permit the exercise of general jurisdiction than they do for the acquisition of specific jurisdiction, i.e., when the acts in Hawaii are related to the cause of action. Helicopteros Nacionales de Colombia v. Hall, 466 U.S. 408, 403, 415-416, 418-19 (1984); Hanson v. Denckla, 357 U.S. 235, 250-254 (1958); Cubbage v. Merchant, 744 F.2d 665 (9th Cir. 1984).

The Hawaii long-arm statute provides no authorization for serving the defendant in New York because the claim does not arise from any Hawaii activity, and if the Hawaii statute did authorize such service, any purported personal jurisdiction over the defendant would be unconstitutional on the facts alleged in the complaint.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, defendant respectfully requests that this Court grant defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's complaint, along with such other and further relief as this Court may deem appropriate.

 Testament of MARILYN MONROE.

COMPLAINT SEEKING SHARE OF PRETERMITTED HEIR

The Plaintiff, NANCY MIRACLE, aka NANCY MANISCALCO GREEN, through her undersigned counsel, avers and alleges as follows:

1. She is a natural person who at all times material herein was a resident and domiciled in the City and County of Honolulu, State of Hawaii.

2. The defendant is the Administratrix of the Last Will and Testament of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, and is domiciled in New York.

3. Jurisdiction is based on diversity of citizenship under 28 U.S.C. section 1332(c)(2).

4. The Will of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano was probated in the Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of New York in 1962.

5. The plaintiff, Nancy Miracle, aka Nancy Maniscalco Green, is the daughter of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, (deceased) and was raised from birth, until her death, by Jennie Cusumano Maniscalco, the older blood sister of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano. Plaintiff is interested in decedent's will and estate.

6. In 1962, an order of the Surrogate's Court for the County of New York was made and entered admitting to probate a certain instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano. That on said date this court made an order appointing Anna Strasberg, administratrix, of said will. That Anna Strasburg duly qualified as executrix and is now the acting administratrix of said will.

7. Since the date of the order aforesaid admitting said instrument to probate, plaintiff has discovered by evidence to plaintiff therefore unknown, and which evidence plaintiff, in the exercise of due diligence, could not have discovered prior to the date of said order and only recently discovered; that plaintiff Nancy Miracle, aka Nancy Maniscalco Green, is the sole natural born child of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano.

8. Plaintiff Nancy Miracle, aka Nancy Maniscalco Green, was born on September 14, 1946 at Wykoff Heights Hospital in Ridgewood Brooklyn. The hospital birth certificate, attached hereto as exhibit A, list Jennie Cusumano Maniscalco as Plaintiff's mother. Jennie Cusumano Maniscalco was the blood older sister of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, who was not married at the time of plaintiff's birth. Based on recently discovered evidence, Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, gave her only child (plaintiff) to her older sister, who raised plaintiff as her own daughter until her death. Also, based on newly discovered evidence, the birth certificate of plaintiff has the right and left footprints of plaintiff on it and the fingerprints of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, on it appearing under Mother's left and right thumbprint.

(see next two pages attached hereto as exhibit A and footprints and fingerprints of plaintiff- exhibit B).

9. Decedent's will made no provision for plaintiff, who is entitled to the same share of decedent's estate as if decedent had died intestate.

10. That plaintiff, being the sole blood daughter of Marilyn Monroe, aka Nancy Cusumano, (deceased) is entitled to a 50% fractional share of said decedent's estate as a pretermitted heir.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that defendant, the administratrix of the Last Will and Testament of the Estate of Marilyn Monroe, be ordered to:

a) Distribute and pay to plaintiff, her 50% pretermitted heir share of said estate which is an amount which plaintiff's request leave to amend this complaint to show at trial but not less than five million dollars.

b) Costs of bringing this suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, deposition expenses and witness costs; and

c) Such other relief as the court deems just.

DECREE ADMITTING WILL

P. 2781-1962

The citation herein having been duly issued, served and returned, and the Surrogate having, on his own motion appointed ARTHUR N. FIELD, ESQ., special guardian of the decedent's estate, mother, Gladys Baker, an incompetent, the allegations of the parties appearing having been heard, and the proofs having been duly taken by the Surrogate, among other things as to the execution of the paper writing dated January 14, 1961 which has been offered for probate as the Last Will of Marilyn Monroe, and the probate of said Will not having been contested, and it appearing to the Surrogate that the Will was duly executed, and that the Testator at the time of executing it, was in all respects competent to make a Will and not under any restraint, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the instrument offered for probate herein be and the same hereby is admitted to probate as the Last Will and Testament of Marilyn Monroe, deceased, valid to pass real and personal property, and that letters testamentary be issued thereon to the Executor and Trustees, upon qualifying thereunder and executing a bond according to law with sufficient sureties to be approved by the Surrogate in the ~~penalty~~ of ^{100,000} Dollars, for the Executor and in the ~~penalty~~ of ^{50,000} Dollars, for the Trustee, for the proper performance of his respective duties;

And that ARTHUR N. FIELD, ESQ., the special guardian herein, is hereby allowed Dollars as compensation for his services.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the letters testamentary shall contain an endorsement restraining the Executor from the receipt of assets exceeding the aggregate value of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND ($100,000.) DOLLARS until further order, and that letters of trusteeship shall contain an endorsement restraining the trustee from receiving assets in excess of FIFTY THOUSAND ($50,000.) DOLLARS until the further order of the Surrogate.

DECEDENT ESTATE LAW

Note 2

Where husband and wife were residents of Germany at time of execution of reciprocal testament, construction of its provisions would not be affected by their subsequent change of residence to New York, and German law would be applied in construing such testament. In re Hirschmann's Estate, 1953, 124 N.Y.S.2d 801.

9. Wills within section

This section is confined in its operation to the execution of a foreign will, its admissibility to probate and the interpretation of testamentary language rather than to validity of any of its provisions. In re Taylor's Estate, 1960, 24 Misc.2d 172, 200 N.Y.S.2d 103.

§ 26. Child born after making will

Whenever a testator shall have a child born after the making of a last will, either in the lifetime or after the death of such testator, and shall die leaving such child, so after-born, unprovided for by any settlement, and neither provided for, nor in any way mentioned in such will, every such child shall succeed to the same portion of such parent's real and personal estate, as would have descended or been distributed to such child, if such parent had died intestate, and shall be entitled to recover the same portion from the devisees and legatees, in proportion to and out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such will. As amended L.1955, c. 225; L.1964, c. 681, § 5, eff. June 1, 1965.

L.1955, c. 225, eff. April 2, 1955, provided that the right of a child born after making of will is subject to valid power of sale.

L.1964, c. 681, § 5, eff. June 1, 1965, omitted paragraph which provided: "The right of a child born after the making of a last will shall be subject to a valid power of sale expressed in the will of the testator or implied therein pursuant to the provisions of section thirteen of this chapter."

Estate and trusts affected by, and separability of, L.1964, c. 681, see notes under section 127.

Effective date. Laws 1955, c. 225, § 2, provided: "This act shall apply only to the estates of persons dying after the date on which this act takes effect [April 2, 1955]."

1a. Construction with other laws

Where legislature periodically reviewed this section and section 35 providing that absent some settlement will is revoked by subsequent marriage and that after-born children not provided for by any settlement may take intestate share, and legislature substituted words "an antenuptial" agreement for words "some settlement" in section 35 regarding effect of subsequent marriage but took no action relative to this section regarding after-born children, variant treatment suggested legislative approval of long continued judicial construction of this section regarding after-born children. In re Faber's Estate, 1953, 305 N.Y. 200, 111 N.E.2d 883.

2. Purpose

To some effect as fourth paragraph of original annotation, see, In re Smith's Will, 1955, 1 Misc.2d 451, 147 N.Y.S.2d 706.

Under this section, legislative purpose was to assure that if, through oversight, such children were neglected in will, other provision would be made for them. In re Faber's Estate, 1953, 305 N.Y. 200, 111 N.E.2d 883.
